DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to Applicant's Amendment, filed on 10/29/2004.
2. Claims 1-10 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Boone et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 6,311,240) and Andric et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 5,449,200) in view of Irons (U.S. Pat. No. 6,192,165).

As per claims 1, 3, 4, and 6-10 Boone substantially discloses a system/method for assisting formatted data transfer that allows a formatting storage controller to read and record data on a formatted storage medium (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein said a method for selecting a media type format for which to generate value-bearing item indicia), said method comprising:

Receiving from a user an input; and identifying a media type format (see., abstract, col 4, lines 13-31, col 5, lines 12-38, specifically wherein said the formatting storage controller may select by reference a number of on-media structure definition.

Boone fails to explicitly disclose the step of securing paper control number. However Andric discloses a security paper for incorporation in a security document, or other document having intrinsic value. The security paper includes a resinous substrate sheet, on which indicia are printed (see., abstract, col 2, lines 3-26, col 15, lines 3-17). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the formatted data of Boone by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Andric because this would verify the authenticity of the documents or papers.

Boone and Andric fail to disclose Applicant's newly added limitation wherein said secured paper control number comprises a serial number that uniquely corresponds to a particular unit. Irons discloses a system and method for indexing, imaging, storing, and retrieving paper-based documents. Wherein each paper-based documents has a unique serial number associated with it or each document number will be globally unique or security code (see., abstract, col 11, lines 27-67, col 12, lines 1-17). Accordingly, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the teachings of Boone and Andric by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Irons because this would allow users to index and label documents prior to scanning/formatting documents or papers.

As per claims 2 and 5 Boone substantially discloses a system/method for assisting formatted data transfer that allows a formatting storage controller to read and record data on a formatted storage medium (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein said a method for selecting a media type format for which to generate value-bearing item indicia), said method comprising:

Receiving an input; and identifying a media type format (see., abstract, col 4, lines 13-31, col 5, lines 12-38, specifically wherein said the formatting storage controller may select by reference a number of on-media structure definition.

Boone fails to explicitly disclose the step of securing paper control number. However Andric discloses a security paper for incorporation in a security document, or other document having intrinsic value. The security paper includes a resinous substrate sheet, on which indicia are printed (see., abstract, col 2, lines 3-26, col 15, lines 3-17, it is obvious to realize that the security paper of Andric can also print label or label stock data since the security paper includes a resinous substrate sheet, on which indicia are printed). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the formatted data of Boone by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Andric because this would verify the authenticity of the documents or papers.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

5. Applicant's arguments filed on 10/29/2004 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of new ground (s) of rejection. Necessitated by amendment.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See

Art Unit: 3621
